THE NEW YORK LATIN LEAFLET

DAVID H HOLMES, Managing Editor
EASTERN DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL, BROOKLYN

Published weekly during the school year by an Editorial Committee of classical teachers from the high schools in New York City.

The entire expense of publication is met by the advertisements, so that every penny of every subscription goes into the Scholarship Fund. The subscription price is 25 cents a year. The advertising rates are twenty-five ($25) dollars an inch, a year.

All communications concerning The Leaflet should be addressed to The Latin Leaflet, Eastern District High School, Driggs Ave and So 3d St, Brooklyn. Subscriptions to The Leaflet should be sent to the same address. Communications requiring answers should contain return postage.

The treasurer is E W Harter, Erasmus Hall High School, Brooklyn, to whom checks made payable to The Scholarship Fund should be sent.

The internal purpose of this publication is to provide a Clearing House for secondary classical teachers in New York and vicinity or anywhere else; to afford an opportunity to younger classical scholars anywhere for the publication of their more modest endeavors along the line of original work, which might not otherwise see the light; to stimulate the teaching and quicken the student activity in the classical work in the high schools of Greater New York. The external purpose is to establish one or more College-entrance-scholarships for the most successful graduates from high schools in New York City, to be awarded on a competitive examination. The proceeds over and above expenses will be devoted to a scholarship fund. The labor involved is a labor of love.

TWO NOTEWORTHY LATIN BOOKS

Collar & Daniell's First Year Latin

This book is intended to provide for the average class of beginners all the material required during the first year, both in grammar and reading. It combines the best features of the authors' earlier beginner's books with many important improvements.

Greenough & Kittredge's Cicero:

ORATIONS AND LETTERS

In addition to the Orations most frequently read, this book includes 33 pages of Letters, several maps, and a new plan of the Forum exhibiting the remarkable series of excavations begun in 1899.

The whole text is printed with long quantities marked.

Further information about these and other valuable Latin publications will be furnished upon application.

Harkness and Forbes's
Caesar's Gallic War, $1.25

This book, while simple, includes everything needed by the student in reading the Commentaries. The introduction contains an outline of the life of Caesar, a description in brief of the scenes of his military operations, and a short treatise on the military system of the Romans. The notes are sufficiently helpful, and the illustrations are appropriate, yet unique.
